

Memorandum of Understanding on the Friendly Exchanges and Cooperation between the State of California of the United States of America and Guangdong Province of the People's Republic of China

The State of California of the United States of America and Guangdong Province of the People's Republic of China,

Considering the importance of enhancing the state-province friendship and mutual understanding,

Believing that a mutually beneficial partnership should be promoted to work effectively and continually,

Pursuant to The Three Joint Communiqués and other agreements between the United States of America and the People's Republic of China,

Have agreed, through the state-province contacts and connections, to strengthen the cooperation in areas including but not limited to:

- Two-way trade and investment
- Science and technological innovation
- Environment conservation
- Renewable and sustainable energy
- Education and human resources
- Culture
- Tourism

The State Government of California and the People's Government of Guangdong Province have designated the following organisations as the primary liaison offices for both sides respectively.

California: California Governor's Office of Business and Economic Development

Guangdong: The Foreign Affairs Office of Guangdong Province

The liaison offices will keep in touch or meet to discuss the progress of ongoing programmes in the above-mentioned areas when necessary.

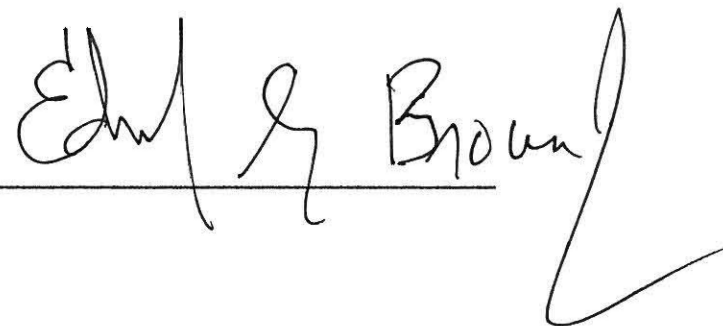

This MoU shall come into force on the day of signing by the official representatives of both governments.

Signed in Guangzhou on the fifteenth day of April 2013, this MoU is written in English and Chinese languages, both in duplicate and deemed equally authentic.

Zhu Xiaodan,
Governor of Guangdong Province,
The People's Republic of China

Edmund G. Brown,
Governor of the State of California,
The United States of America
